Private Group Readings—Transform Your Space into Spirit's Gateway

You're ready for something extraordinary.

A moment of connection that bridges this world and the next—all in the comfort of your home. With a private in-home group reading, each soul present becomes part of a uniquely profound experience that's heart-opening, healing, and unforgettable.

During our time together, I'll create a sacred space in YOUR home, channeling evidential and loving messages from departed loved ones.

While every reading is divinely guided, each message and connection serves a purpose greater than we can imagine. Messages come through with precision and meaning, touching not only the recipient but every single person witnessing it.

This is the Spirit World working to heal, reassure, and reconnect.

Here's the truth: What unfolds in these sessions is more than just readings—it's transformation. It's closure. It's an undeniable reminder that love and connection exist beyond physical boundaries.

What Makes Private Group Readings Special?

- Inclusive and Healing: Every guest, whether receiving a direct message or witnessing others' connections, will walk away feeling touched by Spirit. Messages often resonate on a profoundly personal level with everyone present.

Private Group Readings—Creating a Sacred Experience in Your Home

You've invited Spirit into your space. Now, here's how to ensure this gathering unfolds with the reverence and power it deserves.

For All Attendees:

Energy is Everything:

Your mindset matters. Arrive with an open heart and a genuine willingness to connect. Energy that is closed off, distracted, or resistant can disrupt the connection with Spirit. Remember, your openness is part of the magic that allows these readings to flow.

Honor the Spirits That Step Forward:

Be prepared to welcome whomever steps forward. The messages shared are not random—they carry deep purpose and are guided by Spirit's wisdom. Trust their timing and what they choose to reveal.

Trust the Process:

Spirit does not bring you what you want—they bring what you NEED. Even if the messages or connections aren't what you expected, know they are designed to support and guide you in the best way possible. Surrender to the moment and receive with grace.

For the Host:

You Set the Vibe:

As the host, you're the guardian of this sacred space. Kindly ensure each of your guests is ready to show up with positive, receptive energy. This gathering is a collaborative experience between the living and the Spirit world.

No Cameras Without Permission:

Out of respect for the experience, video or audio recordings are strictly prohibited unless prior permission is granted directly by Courtney Dawson or her team. This space is sacred, and its integrity must be protected.

Energy and Substance Policy:

Please ensure guests do not consume alcohol or recreational drugs before or during the reading. These substances can interfere with the energy needed to connect with Spirit. A clear mind allows for deeper, more meaningful connections.

Zero Tolerance Policy:

Negativity has no place here. Any form of slander, heckling, or inappropriate comments directed at myself or the event will result in an immediate termination of the session. No refunds will be issued if disrespect disrupts the sacredness of this event.

Booking Details:

When reserving your event, please provide your full name, phone number, email address, and the location.

These details ensure everything runs smoothly and your group gets the connection experience of a lifetime.

I'm honoured to guide you and your guests in reconnecting with your loved ones in Spirit. Together, we'll create a gathering that's not only meaningful but unforgettable.
